Daniel W. Kendrick, a sailor at the Navy Yard, ate his lunch on June 15 at George Chaconas' restaurant, 743 Eighth street southeast, but ne paid his bill of $1.07 yesterday to Chaconas in Police Court.

The case came into court, Chaconas

The case came into court, Chaconas said, because the sailor helped himself to four 10-cent cigars and promised to pay some other day. Kendrick was charged with taking property without right, and the 40 cents involved is probably the smallest yet to figure in a Police Court case.

He said he had been getting food and cigars regulatly on cellits. and cigars regularly on credit at Cha-conas' place. He also claimed that he came back and offered to settle, but Chaconas, he stated, demanded $2.10 for $1.07 worth of food and

NEW LOW RENEWAL CALL MONEY RATE AIDS BOND MARKET

Lowest Figure in Five Years Materially Helps Federal Issues.

NEW YORK, June 21 .- The effect of a new low renewal rate for call ney was principally noticeable in the United States government bond group. With the call rate opening at 2% per cent, the lowest initial figure in nearly five years, Libertys responded from the start and the scond 4s and fourth 4%s reached their high levels for the year, while the third 6%s established new high records. Other Libertys were firm to a few cents higher. Market Situation.

Trading in the market as a whole was at a somewhat accelerated rate. but prices did not move in the fashion which would have been the natural thing a few weeks ago. The plied with new offerings of late give it much buoyancy, and easier money conditions and postponement of the bonus bill are being accepted without any great enthusiasm. ## CRUELTY CHARGED

Claiming that her husband told her he would rather drown himself than live with her again Mrs. Hen-rietta C. Storke, wife of Earle F. Storke, an employe of the State De-partment, filed suit yesterday in the District Supreme Court for a limited divorce on the ground of cruelty and insufficient supers insufficient support.

The husband is alleged to have treated his wife with extreme cruelty and to be overfond of another woman whom, Mrs. Storke claims, he takes to work in his automobile.

Through Attorney Timothy J. Hart, Mrs. Storke asks $120 a month alimony for the support of herself and two children. The couple was married February 17, 1918.
